

NOTE FOR PRESS

The Madhya Pradesh government is going to organize a Global Investors Meet at Khajuraho on 22-23 October, 2010 with a view to showcase the vast possibilities of industrialization in the State, and signing of MOUs for facilitating setting up of industries. It has been decided to bring all investment related Government departments and investors on one platform, so that a meaningful dialogue can take place. Though the State offers vast opportunities in a number of investment areas, the focus of the Global Investors Summit 2010 will be on Agro and Food Processing, Minerals, Textiles, Tourism and Infrastructure.

In this connection the state government in organizing national and international road shows at various destinations likes Mumbai, Bangalore, Kolkotta, etc. In the same series an interactive session at Ludhiana is going to be organized today i.e. 10th August, 2010 at Hotel Park Plaza.

A delegation of high level officials of government of Madhya Pradesh will be present here to interact with the industrialists from Punjab to welcome them and attract investment in Madhya Pradesh. Shri Kailash Vijayavargiya, Hon'ble Minister of Industry, Commerce & Employment, Horticulture, Food Processing, Information Technology will lead the delegation. Shri Satya Prakash, Additional Chief Secretary - Commerce & Industry, Shri Sewa Ram, Principal Secretary – Horticulture and Food Processing, Shri Anil Kumar Jain, Managing Director - MPSIDC & MPTRIFAC and Shri Anil Shrivastava, Managing Director – MP Agro Industries Corporation will also be present alongwith other senior state government officials.

Shri Dinesh Oswal, Managing Director – Nahar Group will welcome the industrialists from Punjab. Shri Oswal is having a textile mill near Bhopal and he is going to put another unit in Madhya Pradesh.

Shri S P Oswal, Chairman – Vardhaman Group will share his experience with government of Madhya Pradesh with the industrialists from Punjab during the interactive session. During the interactive meet a presentation on resources and opportunities in Madhya Pradesh will be presented by MD, MPSIDC and another presentation on agri & food processing industry in Madhya Pradesh will be given by MD, MP Agro Industries Corporation.

The delegation of Madhya Pradesh will be inviting investors to Khajuraho to witness the actual development which has taken place in the state. The Hon'ble Chief Minister will be the Host of the Investor's Meet and will be interact with prospective investors from all the over the world. Many big industrialists from India have consented to participate and share and their experiences.

The global investor's summit will focus investment on IT, Tourism, Food Processing, Infrastructure, Apparel & Textiles, etc. The investors may ask for registration if they are interested in attending the investors meet at Khajuraho.